
ITidiots iMac

Posted by nickhill - 2007/08/15 18:28

I am upgrading my iMac and hence I am selling the original ITidiots editing machine. Think of it as the signiture edition with the following spec.

Intel dual core 2ghz
20" display 1680x1050 resolution
1GB ram (stole the other)
240GB 7200 speed drive
wireless mouse and keyboard
1 Year Old.
Immaculate condition.
Fully Boxed with all manuals.

Loaded with a great deal of amazing software, dual booted with Windows XP Pro, loaded with even more software.

please email questions and sensible offers to nick@itidiots.com

Nick,

I suggest you sign it now that you are famous, get a lot more money for it then. B)
